

João Maria Jonet

Interested in politics from an early age, he launched his first blog on the subject in 2016 to cover the polarizing US elections. The taste for communication acquired from this experience led him to create the website 'O Parágrafo', where he still summarizes current political events in an uncomplicated way. Since 2020 he has worked with various political actors such as Carlos Moedas and Jorge Moreira da Silva. He is Secretary General of the Platform for Sustainable Growth and a commentator for SIC Notícias.