

Maria Rosário Veiga

Main research topics: Performance and durability of wall covering materials; Conservation of historic buildings; Sustainable construction, low embodied energy materials, energy efficient constructive solutions; Building to health and comfort. Consultancy work: assessment of new solutions for wall coverings, analysis of pathology and rehabilitation proposals. Participation and coordination of national and international research projects. Author/co-author of many publications, including more than one hundred scientific articles in indexed international journals.