

Paulo Lopes Silva

Councillor at Guimarães City Council with responsibility for the following areas: Culture, Administrative Modernization and Quality, Intelligent and Information Systems, Customer Service, Human Resources and Tourism. Chairman of the board of the A Oficina Cooperative and represents the municipality of Guimarães on the board of the Norte Cultural Association and the General Assembly of the Portuguese Association of Municipalities with a Historic Centre. Degree in Computer Engineering and a master's in systems engineering from the University of Minho and has trained in SCRUM Master and Digital Transformation at the Instituto Superior Técnico of the University of Lisbon. Worked in software and consultancy companies in the construction, public procurement and public administration sectors. Association leader, notably on the governing bodies of Amiguinhos do Museu Alberto Sampaio and on the board of the Portuguese Chess Federation. He was also involved for several years with the Raul Brandão Rehearsal Theatre of the Círculo de Arte e Recreio and the Bando do Gil.