

Rui Furtado Marques

Rui Luis Furtado Marques, graduated in Civil Engineering from IST in 1980, has a MSc in Civil Engineering from Universidade Nova de Lisboa in 2023, is a specialist in Construction Management by the Order of Engineers, and is currently a member of that specialization committee. Former Director of Edifer Construções between 1998 and 2009, with responsibility for production in the buildings sector, including Atrium Saldanha, Campus da Justiça and the refurbishment of the Machado de Castro National Museum and the Alcobaça Monastery surroundings. Director of HCI Construções, between 2009 and 2024, with responsibility for production, including Champalimaud Foundation, New EDP Headquarters, NOVA SBE in Carcavelos, and the refurbishment of Banco de Portugal Headquarters, Diário de Notícias Building, Ivens Arte Building, Rossio Quarter, Gulbenkian Foundation's Grand Auditorium and the Gulbenkian Modern Art Center.